Select “Services → For Faculty”
for information about library services and opportunities.

Welcome to the library! The library supports Hollins faculty by providing research instruction and assistance, access to scholarly resources and creative work, support for the application of instructional technology, and events to build intellectual community.

We strive for equity, diversity and inclusion through every aspect of those resources and services, working with the community to ensure that everyone feels like they belong at the library.

Collections

OneSearch

Use OneSearch to access all books, e-books, and films, as well as a large number of scholarly articles, primary sources, and streaming films and music. We also share a collection with Roanoke College and you can request their books and films through OneSearch; these will be delivered to Hollins the next business day.

Go to the library homepage, library.hollins.edu, to access OneSearch, or select “Articles & Databases” for specialized research.

FLEX - Faculty Library EXpress

The library provides on-campus delivery and pick-up for faculty and staff. Use OneSearch to place your request and we will deliver to your office within two business days.

Interlibrary Loan (ILL)

Books and articles not available from our library can be requested and will be delivered to your office or email. To place a request, select the ILL link on our homepage. For assistance contact Shawna Battle, Interlibrary Services Coordinator, at ill@hollins.edu or 540.362.6239.

Collections (continued)

Digital Projects

Our projects include digitization of the scholarly and creative output of the University in the Hollins Digital Commons. We also partner with faculty to incorporate digital exhibits and other projects into the curriculum. See library.hollins.edu/digital-projects for more information. Contact: Sara Sprague, Digital Pedagogy and Scholarship Librarian, at spraguesa@hollins.edu or 540.362.6234.

Special Collections & Archives

Special Collections houses the historical archives of the university along with rare books, manuscripts, and Hollins author publications. To integrate these materials into your courses contact Isabel Folck, Archivist and Special Collections Librarian, at folckil@hollins.edu or 540.362.6237.

Building Intellectual Community

Events for Faculty

We invite you to join us at the annual writers' retreat, course spa, authors & achievers luncheon and other events created to support and celebrate Hollins faculty.

Galleries, Libraries, Archives, Museums: GLAM Studies Certificate

If you have advisees or other students interested in learning more about libraries, archives and other cultural heritage institutions, please direct them to the GLAM Studies courses in the Hollins academic catalog. Contact Luke Vilelle, University Librarian, at vilelle@hollins.edu or 540.362.6232.

Instructional Support

Liaison librarians facilitate collections, instruction, and research support, for each academic department. Contact us to request research instruction for your classes, online research guides, new materials for the library collection, and updates on new publications in your field.
